Message from the President

Wow! The Social Committee and all the volunteers did a fantastic job on the Chinese New Year Dinner Dance. The food was phenomenal, thanks to Chef Tim and his assistant, Kevin. Our wait staff did a great job getting the food out HOT and in a timely manner. Many thanks to the whole crew for an excellent job and to all the members and guests who came out to make this a stellar affair.

Remember, February 2nd is our annual Super Bowl Party. Tickets are available through Lou Barletta and also from the office M-F, 9am - 2pm. Our Valentine's Day Dinner Dance is February 15, so grab your sweethearts and come out to enjoy the evening with The Coconuts providing the entertainment. Please buy your tickets early - we are expecting a sellout!

On March 2, we are holding an Open House to recruit new members. See Vice President Joe Abitante and Director Tony Iorlano for more details. Help spread the word!!

And let's not forget all my working girls who, week after week, wear out their shoes doing what they do best - giving away money from 50/50 while making money for our club. Please look for them and support your club. Always remember we need your participation in club affairs and special events to keep our club running in a positive direction.

At our most recent General Meeting, our Vice President Joe Minotti responded to a legitimate inquiry by a member. This should never have been done in the manner it was done. I apologize for that. It would have been better if the matter had been discussed between me, as President, the person with the inquiry and the person responding to the inquiry. While I wish it had been handled differently, I do know the response came from a place of passion for the club.

I would like our membership to know that I have an open door policy. If you have a suggestion, complaint or, preferably, a compliment, please don't hesitate to contact me! Working together as a united Board, we are doing our best to move forward to make the IASC the best club in Palm Coast!

Respectfully submitted-

La Festa di San Giuseppe (The Feast of St. Joseph)

San Giuseppe is the stepfather of Jesus. In Christianity he is an important figure. In the Catholic religion he is celebrated during Lent. If the day of his celebration falls during Holy Week, it is moved to the closest possible day before March 19, otherwise it is that day. It is usually the Saturday before Holy Week. Different Christian religions and different countries celebrate his day at different times. In Italy, particularly in Sicily, San Giuseppe is regarded as their patron saint, likewise in many Italian American communities. The rationale for him being the patron saint of Sicily is that the Sicilians credit him with preventing a famine during the middle ages

There was a severe drought and the people of Sicily prayed to St. Joseph to bring rain, promising him that if the rains did come they would have a feast to honor him. The rains came and in response the people celebrated him with a feast. The fava bean was what kept the people from starving; consequently, the fava bean is an principal part of St. Joseph's Day celebration; to eat the fava on that day brings good luck for the year. Some other traditional things in celebrating the day are the wearing of something red (similar to wearing of the green for St. Patrick), and making and eating zeppole. There is the building of a three tier altar (La Tavola di San Giuseppe), the three tiers represent the Trinity. On these tiers are placed, flowers, candles, wine, fava beans, cakes, breads, Sfinge di San Giuseppe, cookies and bread crumbs. The bread crumbs represent saw dust, since Joseph was a carpenter. Since his day occurs during Lent, the feast is meatless. In Italy March 19, is also Father's Day.

It is also traditional for many families to make Pane di San Giuseppe, St. Joseph's bread in celebration of his day. For those who know how to bake, the recipe is, 3 cups of unbleached flour, 1 tbsp. of yeast, 1 tbsp. honey, 2/3 cup of warm water, 1/2 tsp of salt, 2 tbsp. of butter, 3 tbsp. of anise, and 1/3 cup of golden raisins. Make the dough adding the raisins, raise in a well oiled bowl with cover for an hour, lightly knead the dough again, at this point you can make a treccia, (a three strand braid). Raise the dough again for 30 minutes on a greased baking sheet with a light towel on top. When time to bake, spritz it with water and place in a 350 degree oven for 35-40 minutes. Buon Appetito.

Putting Patients First for Over 70 Years!

FOCUSED ON QUALITY.
CELEBRATING 13 YEARS OF SERVICE TO PALM COAST
CENTERED ON YOU.

Roy Siragusa, M.D., of Radiology Associates has had the privilege of serving the residents Palm Coast for the past 13 years and looks forward to many more years to come. Radiology Associates was the first to provide Palm Coast with medical imaging procedures such as the 3T MRI, 64 slice CT, "Time of Flight" PET/CT, digital mammography and nuclear medicine. Dr. Siragusa thanks you for trusting us as your medical imaging provider. This is our community - our doctors live here and strive to provide only the best to you, our neighbors.
