The Italian American Social Club at Palm Coast

Message from the President

To All Our Members,

This past month has been very productive.

Our attendance not only on Friday but on Tuesday also has been vastly improved.

Our bus to The Hard Rock Casino in Tampa, our first such venture, was a great success. We filled 2 buses, thanks to our Coordinator Marie Woodward, Joe Abitante & their committee. Everyone enjoyed our continental breakfast and snacks both going & coming home on the bus trip. We are planning another bus trip on Sept 1st and already have enough signed up to fill one bus so if you would like to join us make your reservations ASAP. Contact Marie or Joe or call the club any day between 9 AM & 1 PM.

Our Installation Dinner Dance was wonderful thanks to the efforts of Virginia Esposito & Mickey Logemann and their committee. The food was great and the room looked absolutely gorgeous.

We had our first Father's Day Brunch on Father's Day. It was elegant. Our Chef Dan and his committee outdid themselves. We had nothing but compliments from everyone attending. Thanks to all the volunteers who worked for two days decorating and serving. Also thanks to those who baked the delicious desserts - Cathy Irene, Rose Todesco, Antoinette Santaniello, Marie Luke & Viola VanGorden

This month we have "A Night at the Races", on July 9th. Come out and join us for a night of fun and maybe win a few dollars. Get your tickets early. Tickets are only $18 and that includes a ¼ chicken & roast beef dinner, pasta, dessert & open bar for 4 hours. You can't beat that !!!!

Our new board is working very hard to manage our club-opening & closing & whatever is asked of them.

We are looking forward to a Hawaiian Night in August. And don't forget our Book Sale on Sept 3rd. If you have any books, DVDs, magazines etc. to donate, drop them off at the club any week day.

Tuesdays in July will be called "Wacky Tuesday". All alcohol drinks will be reduced 50 cents. Come out and join us for a drink and a song as Tuesday is also Karaoke Night.

Also for July & August we will be serving Summer Salads with marinated chicken for dinner at our General Meeting.

Until next month, stay well and God Bless
Pat LaCorte, President

HERITAGE COMMITTEE

Il Primo Direttore del Metropolitan Museum Di New York
(The First Director of the Metropolitan Museum of New York)

Luigi Palma di Cesnola, a Piemontese (1832-1904), was a unique early Italian immigrant who fought in the Civil War against the South. War was not new to his calling since he had already fought in the Crimean War under the British and in Italy prior to Italy's unification. Luigi arrived in the U.S. in 1858, at the age of twenty-eight seeking adventure and fortune in the new land. Upon his arrival, he opened a school teaching French and Italian and later marrying one of his students (una fanciulla Americana). After his marriage, he continued teaching and later opened a military academy. Many of his students used their educational experiences in the coming war. Unfortunately, many fought against each other.

In 1862, Luigi voluntarily enrolled in the Union army. He was thirty-one years of age, and already in his young life, had significant military experiences. Those experiences were instrumental in him receiving the grade and position of Lieutenant Colonel of the 11th Regiment of the New York Cavalry. His military career was not without the kiss of good fortune. His Italian military technical capabilities, in fact, were overshadowed by his indolent egocentricity, which later caused him to be arrested for insubordination of an order from an officer of higher rank. However, in the course of a battle, Luigi performed a heroic deed that saved the lives of many of his men and was consequently, restored to his original rank. He continued his soldiering and after many battles, he was wounded and captured. He spent ten months in a Southern prison camp. While imprisoned he was recognized as a leader and became the spokesperson and intermediary of his fellow prisoners of war. After his release, he met with President Abraham Lincoln, who verbally conferred the rank of Brigadier General upon him. Unfortunately for all, Lincoln's assassination occurred two days later and the rank was never officially bestowed. Luigi continued to serve, and later was awarded citizenship, and appointed as consul to the Island of Cyprus. He spent ten years there, and during his tenure his interest in archeology came to full bloom. He uncovered and collected many artifacts. Upon his return home, he brought back 35,000 objects and sold a large selection to the Metropolitan Museum of which he was appointed Director, i.e., the first. At the museum is a large collection of artifacts called the Cesnola collection. Other museums also contain some of his discoveries, such as the Harvard University Museum in Massachusetts and the Semetic Museum in New York. A "Cesnola Atlas" consisting of six quarto volumes was published to present the collection of Cypriot antiquities to the scholarly world.
